ABOUT THE FILM: Missing for years, two alcoholics are discovered living together in the back woods of Woonsocket, RI. A series of profound coincidences lead to miraculous reunions with their families and a chance at treatment, recovery and redemption. The real challenge, however, is yet to come: What happens when only one of the men is able to remain sober?

ABOUT THE TOUR: The producers of this critically acclaimed film are hitting the road with the inspiring story subject who has successfully maintained his recovery since 2005. He has made it his mission to pay it forward and share his story of redemption. He will attend each screening and his captivating speech will follow the film. A must-see for anyone affected by the beast of addiction.
